

National Organization of Black Women in Law Enforcement, Inc.

PO BOX 14 Sunderland, MD 20689

March 16, 2024

Re: Letter in Support of Mr. Adeel A. Mangi, Esq. to the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals

Dear Majority Leader Schumer, Minority Leader McConnell, Chairman Durbin, and Ranking Member Graham, we, the members of the National Organization of Black Women in Law Enforcement, Inc. write to support the nomination of Mr. Adeel Mangi to the United States Third Circuit Court of Appeals.

The National Organization of Black Women in Law Enforcement is an organization committed to protecting, serving, and leading the next generation of women in the law enforcement. We pride ourselves in networking, dialoguing, and embracing others in the various law enforcement agencies, to make a difference. We ensure that policies and procedures are free of all bias; promote equitable hiring, retention, and promotion of women officers; and ensure their culture is inclusive, respectful, and supportive of women in all ranks and roles of law enforcement.

Mr. Mangi's illustrious career as a litigator with Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP, has displayed all the qualities of an excellent judge: sterling credentials, extensive legal experience before trial and appellate courts, leadership within the legal community, and a demonstrated commitment to upholding the highest ethics and fair administration of the law. His record, both in his personal and professional capacities, demonstrates his respect for the rule of law and the role of law enforcement in promoting public safety. As law enforcement professionals, it is our collective belief that Mr. Mangi will help ensure equity in the administration of justice in all communities.

In closing, this correspondence acts as a formal endorsement of Mr. Mangi's nomination to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

Michelle D. Bracken

Michelle D. Bracken
National President